

ALDERSBROOK NEWS

Friday 17 January 2025

Thank you for all your positive messages regarding our Ofsted outcome.

I am very happy that the hard work and dedication of the Aldersbrook team has been recognised.

We are still human, and will make mistakes, but one way in which we are Outstanding is that we are always learning and reflecting so we can be better and better. We will continue to strive and do the best we can so the children have the best outcomes.

Thank you for your support.

Thank You

Don't forget to check the calendar on

Congratulations...

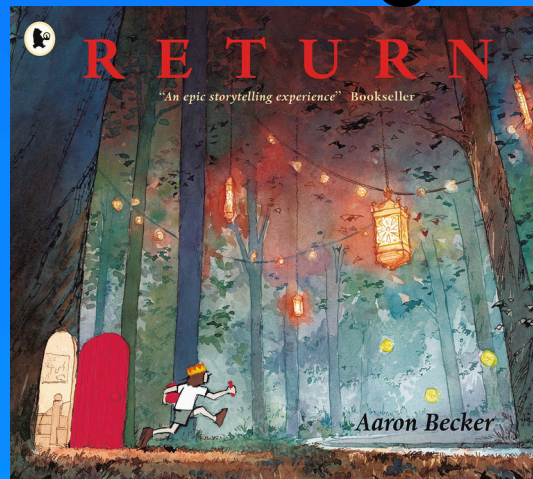

Congratulations to Miss Newman who is expecting a baby! Her new arrival is due in June.

I am sure you will join me in wishing her all the best over the coming months.

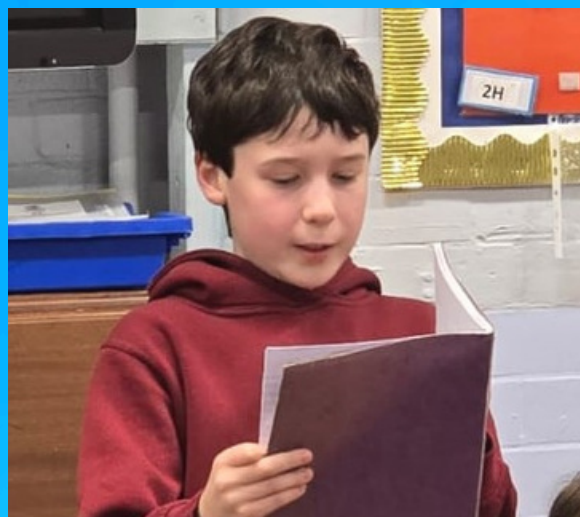

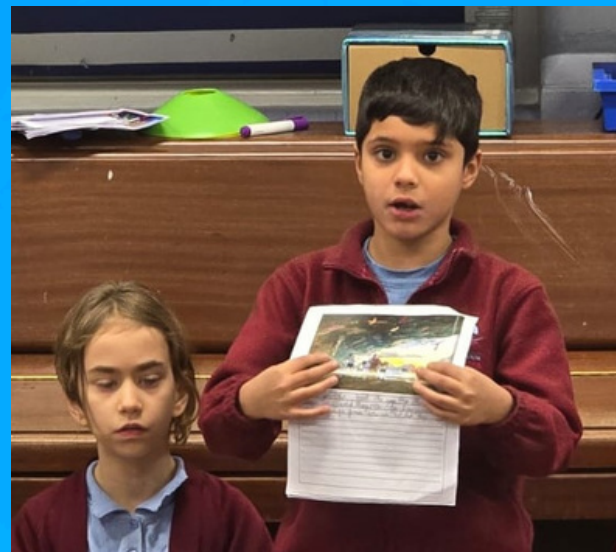

Whole School Writing Week

The whole school explored the book Return by Aaron Becker. It does not have any words but has the most amazing pictures. Children then produced different pieces of writing based on the book and shared them in assembly.

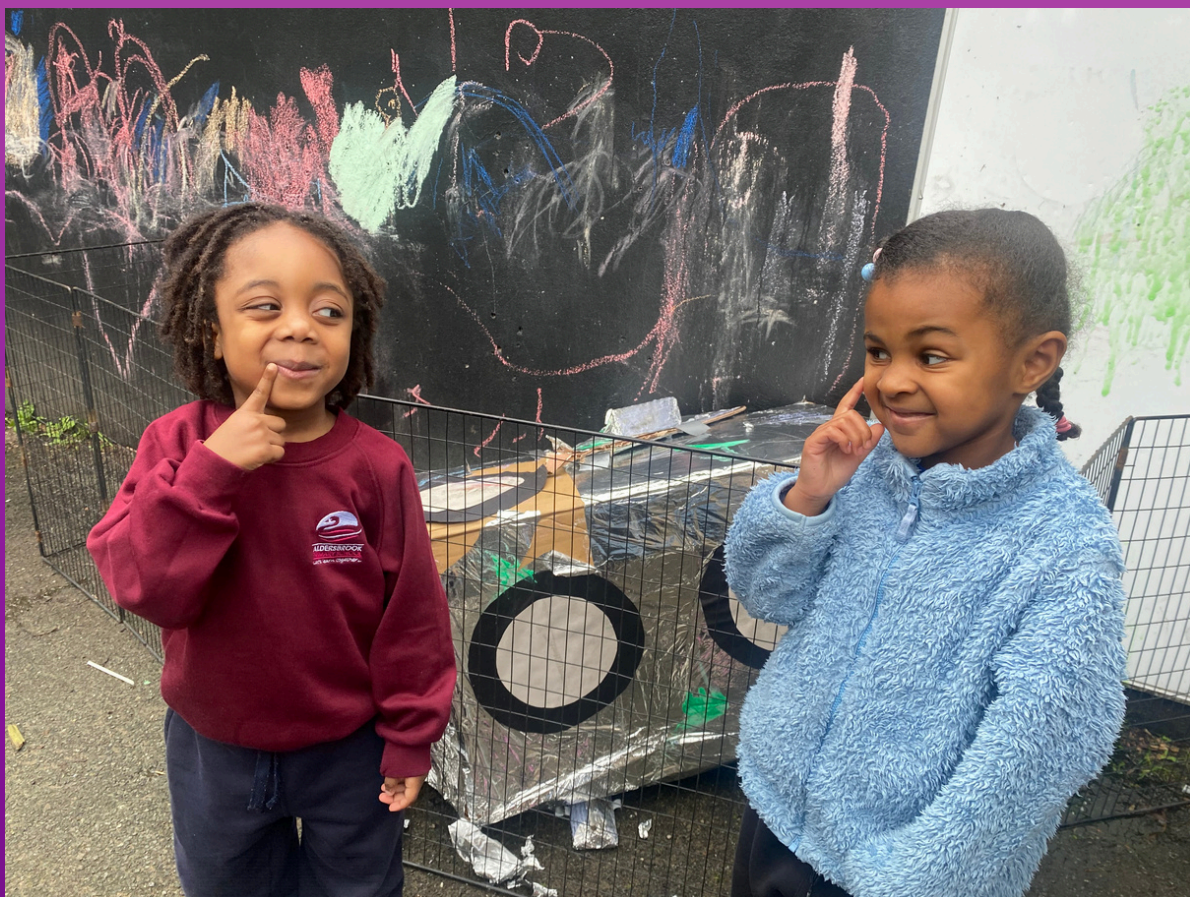

You will see colourful pieces of ribbon around the school - this represents the story throughout the book.

Around Aldersbrook...

Year 2 Design Technology

A space rocket crashed in the Reception garden. It was covered in green slime! The children investigated what had happened. Look out for those aliens!

Around Aldersbrook...

Years 1 and 2 were lucky to have a string orchestra perform for them in a special concert.

Redbridge Education Awards - please nominate!

Last year Alan Fletcher won in his category after being nominated for a Redbridge Education Award. It would be wonderful if more individuals at Aldersbrook could be recognised for their dedication and hard work.

To nominate a member of staff please go to the web site.
